Palestine Problem At Breaking Point

Jews Ready To Defend Holy Land

New York, Aug. 21—(AP)—The Palestine problem is far from settled. Despite the second United Nations truce, half a dozen armies are lined up in the Holy Land waiting to join a fight to the finish which almost everybody in the Middle East considers inevitable.

Arab resentment toward the new Jewish state has not lessened, and Arab passion still boils beneath the truce lid.

Arab governments gave in to truce demands from the United Nations only because of international pressure. This did not alter their attitude nor that of their people toward Israel.

The Jews appear just as determined to hold their new state. Arabs express fears the Jews will expand further into Arab territory.

A Syrian official said: "We cannot afford to quit fighting."

I have just returned from three years of travel through all the Arab countries. Everywhere I was told by people in all walks of life that the Arabs are determined to fight the Jewish state forever if necessary.

Mufti Sounds Battle Cry

Veteran observers agree the Arabs will fight on.

Present activities of Haj Amin El Hussein, exiled Mufti of Jerusalem, seem to confirm this view. Since Arab regular armies have accepted the truce, the Mufti again has taken up the battle cry.

During the past few weeks he has visited leaders all over Arabia petitioning them to join him. He claims 15,000 volunteer fighters and has been pressuring Arab governments for arms.

"If we cannot get help closer home, we may ask Russia for help," said one of the Mufti's aides. "The Americans and British are supporting the Jews; Russia would help us and we prefer Russian masters to Jewish ones."

Arabs Not Serious

There is no real indication, however, that the Arabs are taking this seriously. They seem to put it out more as a barb to the Americans than anything else.

The Mufti's political star appears to be fading after being eclipsed while the regular Arab armies waged war in Palestine.

The Mufti sparked the Arab drive against Israel prior to the commitment of the regular armies last May. Since then he had remained quietly at home in Cairo.

Trans-Jordan officials speculated he is being kept under wraps by the Egyptians in case he is needed to counteract the growing influence of Trans-Jordan King Abdullah in Palestine.

SOMEONE LEAVES BANK DOOR OPEN; EXECUTIVE HAS HECTIC NIGHT

Garden City, Kas., Aug. 21—(P)—Leigh C. Perry, vice-president of the Garden City National Bank, had a jittery night last night.

Police telephoned the front door of the bank was wide open. He rushed down to check on a possible bank robbery. Nothing was disturbed. He concluded somebody had forgotten to lock the door.

Still a bit shaken, Perry went home to bed. Just before dawn he was awakened by a loud crash of glass. He called the cops.

A patrolman soon had the answer. The milkman had fallen down near Perry's home.

He broke 10 bottles.

Says Russia Obtained Valuable War Information

Milwaukee, Aug. 21—(P)—Spokesmen for Milwaukee industries said today, Russia had obtained strategic information on local production by means of a "buyer guide" published during the war.

The information, it was said, was so complete there has been no necessity for the sending of spying letters similar to those about which the army intelligence has warned.

Kenneth W. Haagenen, director of the public relations for the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing company, said the "guide" prepared by the Soviet purchasing commission was "very complete and clever."

"Companies from which the Russians obtained lend-lease materials either directly or through United States government sub-contractors were solicited to advertise in this so-called catalog of American industry prepared by the Russians," Haagenen said.

"In many, if not most cases, the companies took ads which detailed their products and their war participation."

Fifteen Jets Return From Atlantic Flight

Detroit, Aug. 21—(P)—Fifteen F-80 jet fighters, completing the first jet-propelled round trip Atlantic flight in history, landed at their Selfridge Field home base today at 2:21 p.m. (CST).

One plane in the squadron of 16 was held up at Dow Field, Bangor, Me., on the return trip from Germany. It was expected later.

The pilots, led by Lt. Col. David Schilling, of Traverse City, Mich., spent 22 days training at Furstenfeldbruck, Germany. They took off from here July 12.

Total time in the air on the return trip was clocked at 13 hours and 53 minutes. It was 12 hours and 10 minutes going over. The silver, red-nosed planes averaged a speed of 445 miles per hour.

New Witnesses Called In Spy Investigation

Washington, Aug. 21—(P)—Congressional spy investigators quietly began lining up three or four new witnesses today in an attempt to get "missing details" in the story of Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers.

Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.), member of the House un-American activities committee, described the witnesses as "very important but not publicly prominent."

The committee plans to question them secretly on Monday and Tuesday, then have them testify in public hearings Wednesday.

"You'll get your story Wednesday, and a good one, I think," Nixon told reporters.

Wednesday is the day Hiss and Chambers have been summoned to confront each other in open hearings.

Now a senior editor for Time magazine, Chambers has testified he was a Communist from 1924 to 1937 and that Hiss was a member of an "elite" Red underground that operated in Washington.

Hiss denied Chambers' charges. A former official in the State Department, he now is president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

SALERNO SAYS SLUMP
"HANDWRITING ON WALL"
Manchester, N. H., Aug. 21—(P)—Joseph A. Salerno, national vice president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, CIO, warned today that "the present slump in textile and apparel industries is the handwriting on the wall of a major economic bust in the future."

Officials Unveil Cards Used For Draft Registry

Washington, Aug. 21—(P)—The postcard-size draft registration form was unveiled today by Selective Service officials.

The four-by-six inch cards will be used to register an estimated nine and a half million men 18 through 25 between Aug. 30 and Sept. 18.

They are so simple that officials predict registrants can fill out the 16 questions in a matter of minutes.

The registration cards do not require fingerprints, nor do they ask whether a man is a Communist.

After registering, draft-age men will wait for classification forms which should be received within a week or two. These are much more detailed and must be returned within 10 days.

Parents Torture Child For 25 Cent Theft

Atlanta, Aug. 21—(P)—A man and woman were charged today with inflicting medieval tortures on their seven-year-old daughter whom they accused of stealing 25 cents.

Fulton county policeman, Stephen Nicholas, said the couple was arrested after neighbors complained that the child was forced to hang from the croch of a peach tree, in a driving rain, for more than an hour.

Nicholas said the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cox, were released under bonds of $200 on charges of cruelty to a minor child.

"The parents admitted to us that they 'punished' the child," Nicholas said.

Neighbors told the officer, he said, that the child was made to stand on tiptoe, with her head in the tree croch. If she dropped her weight, he said she choked herself.

Nicholas said that according to neighbors, the child—Martha Cox—stood for an hour in the rain in that position.

The police report quoted the parents as accusing Martha of stealing 25 cents from the pocketbook of a woman housekeeper. Police said Martha denied stealing the money.

Gerald L. K. Smith Nominated For President Of U.S.

St. Louis, Aug. 21—(P)—Gerald L. K. Smith, founder of the "Christian Nationalist Crusade," was named today as the group's presidential nominee.

Harry A. Romer of St. Henry, O., described as a prominent merchant, was nominated vice-president.

Smith's chief lieutenant, Don Lohbeck, editor of the party's publication, The Cross and the Flag, told the crowd of 200 persons that "we realize the impossibility of winning an election this year, but we do expect to elect our candidates in 1952."

A man introduced as the Rev. Leland L. Marion of Pontiac, Mich., made the nominating speech for Smith. No other candidates were considered.

A platform calling for opposition to Communism and political Zionism, and demanding full segregation of Negroes was also adopted at the afternoon session of the party's first convention.

'Axis Sally' Comes Home

Washington, Aug. 21—(P)—Milred Elizabeth Gillars, 48-year-old silver-haired American whom the G.I.s knew in Europe as "Axis Sally" of the Nazi radio, came home today to face a treason charge.

Under army escort all the way, "Axis Sally" a native of Portland, Maine, landed at Bolling air force base from Frankfurt, Germany.

With army and FBI precision, she was led from the air field to the office of U. S. Commissioner Cyril S. Lawrence.

The commissioner then read off the detailed charges of treason against her and FBI agents led her off to the district jail.

The preliminary hearing was bound over until 7 a.m. (CST) August 31. Lawrence said this would give her time to get a lawyer.

MEXICAN WORKERS PROTEST
Mexico City, Aug. 21—(P)—Thousands of workers marching 10 abreast protested today against high living costs. The parade through Mexico City's business district extended for 10 blocks to the Constitutional Plaza in front of the National Palace.

OP's Campaign To Whittle Excise Taxes

Washington, Aug. 21—(P)—With new income tax cuts unlikely, Republicans may bid for Mr. Average Citizen's favor with a campaign pledge to whittle the irritating excise taxes he pays.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) opened the door for such a promise in a prediction that the next Congress will undertake wholesale revision of the revenue laws.

But the chairman of the Senate finance committee told a reporter before he left Washington on a vacation there is little chance of further cuts in income taxes next year.

"We've got to pay at least $2,600,000,000 on the public debt and after that we'll see what tax deductions can be made," he said. "I think we can cut out some excise taxes but I don't see much room for a general income tax reduction."

President Truman made the nation's finances something of a presidential campaign issue by contending last week that the country faces a $1,500,000,000 deficit. He blamed this in part on what he called Congress' ill-timed slash in income taxes.

Republicans cried that the president's figures were phony. They said the country will have a surplus. Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), chairman of the House appropriations committee and a friend of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP presidential nominee, said the surplus might run as high as $3,000,000,000.

Only time and the treasury's books will tell who is right, and then only long after the Nov. 2 election.

Millikin said he sees no reason why some of the more "irritating" excise taxes can't be dropped. These levies are assessed against a wide range of articles, including cigarettes, gasoline, cosmetics, theater and travel tickets.

Russian Consul Books Passage For Europe

New York — (P)— Soviet Consul General Jacob Lomakin, expelled by the U. S. State Department over the Russian refugee teacher case, has booked passage for Europe—but his right-hand man hinted today that he may not leave.

Passage for the discredited Lomakin and his family has been booked on the liner Stockholm sailing next Saturday for Gothenburg, Sweden.

But Vice Consul Zolt I. Chepurynsk—replying to a newsman's question—said today:

"Oh, I think he's going to stay." Reporters had asked him who might replace Lomakin in New York. Chepurynsk would not elaborate on his statement.

No word came directly from Lomakin about the sailing.

An attaché who said he was secretary to the consulate, said Lomakin's reservations were made "about two months ago," long before the school teacher case began.

"It was a routine return," the attaché said.

A spokesman for the Swedish-American line, operator of the Stockholm, said Lomakin's passage was booked in Europe, adding that there was no way of telling here whether it was made recently or some time ago.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, the 52-year-old refugee teacher who is the pawn in the diplomatic dispute, was removed today from the critical list at Roosevelt hospital.

She had been described as in a "critical" condition ever since her three-story leap from the Russian consulate nine days ago.

Federal Judge Calls Off Strike Of Dock Workers

New York, Aug. 21—(P)—A federal judge, acting at the request of the U. S. attorney general, today ordered 45,000 east coast dock workers to call off a strike set for midnight tonight.

The order, handed down in the form of a temporary injunction, was issued by Judge Harold R. Medina against the AFL International Longshoremen's union. It also restrains six employer organizations from resorting to possible lockout in connection with the labor dispute.

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the union, said the ILA would abide by the court's ruling.

The restraining order is effective until Aug. 31. But Joseph M. Friedman, special assistant to U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark, said the government next Tuesday would act to have the injunction extended for the full 80-day cooling off period covered by the Taft-Hartley Act.

President Truman directed Clark to seek the injunction on the ground that a strike of longshoremen in busy eastern ports would endanger the national health and safety.

Mr. Truman acted after his fact-finding board reported that a work stoppage was imminent.

Truman Cruising On Chesapeake

Solomon's Md., Aug. 21—(P)—President Truman, on a pre-campaign cruise aboard the yacht Williamsburg, sailed up Chesapeake Bay early tonight after half a day at anchor near here.

The stop was made at the Patuxent Naval Station to hospitalize a seaman from a Navy escort ship, who underwent an operation early today aboard the Williamsburg.

The yacht was at anchor from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. (CST) but Mr. Truman did not go ashore.

The President's schedule called for an overnight anchorage some 20 miles up the bay. He is due at Annapolis, Md., tomorrow morning.

White House correspondents, coming from Washington by automobile, made contact with the party here, and also made arrangements for a yacht from which to cover the early stages of the cruise.

Coal Miners To Get Pension

Washington, Aug. 21—(P)—Aged coal miners will start receiving pensions next month, marking an end to one of the famous labor-management struggles of modern times.

Officials of the United Mine Workers Welfare Fund made the announcement today.

They have mailed to all local unions the application forms to be used by eligible miners in the bituminous coal industry who have retired or want to retire. They expect to mail out the first checks in September.

The amount will be $100 a month.

To be eligible, a miner must be 62 years or older. He must have a total of 20 years' service in the coal industry. He must be a member of the United Mine Workers.

And if he has already retired, he gets a pension only if his retirement came after May 28, 1946. If he retired on that date or earlier, he gets no pension.

Those were the terms of the agreement of April 12 between John L. Lewis and Senator Styles Bridges, New Hampshire Republican, constituting a two-man majority of the three-man board of trustees for the welfare fund.

The third man, Coal Operator Ezra Van Horn, sued to stop pension payments under this plan, and did delay them, but Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough found, June 22, that the plan was legal, "reasonable and proper."

The bituminous coal miners, who number about 340,000, were on strike for a month in March and April, because of the failure to agree on the method of paying pensions out of the welfare fund.

The same Goldsborough, on that occasion, fined Lewis and the union for contempt of court because they were slow in obeying a court order to end the strike.

Today the union's news bureau said in its statement concerning the beginning of pensions:

"Thus, after more than two years of battling across the negotiating table and through the courts, the dream of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, is about to become a reality."

"This was the dream to bring some dignity and security to tired and aged coal miners who had spent their lives underground in the never-ending and thankless quest for coal to keep the American economy alive."

J. S. Seeks Discussion With Russ

Berlin, Aug. 21—(AP)—Russian soldiers beat and stabbed German police in the American sector of Berlin today and American authorities expressed fear of a clash between occupation forces.

The Americans were seeking direct discussions with the Russians to arrange a truce between rival police forces in the Soviet and western sectors.

Failing a settlement, an American spokesman said, "something might happen that will involve more than the Germans."

Although attempts to reach high Russian officials were unsuccessful, two Russian officers told the U. S. deputy provost marshal in a street conference they would keep armed Soviet troops concentrated in central Berlin as long as the United States keeps military police there.

German Police Attacked

Today, two American sector German policemen were attacked and carried off by the Russians. An official police announcement said the two men were accosted by "numerous" Russian soldiers who demanded they come along into the Soviet sector.

When they resisted, one was stabbed and the other knuckled down with a rifle butt.

The incident occurred near the Annhalter railroad station in downtown Berlin, near the border between the American and Soviet sectors. Earlier, two other German police were kidnapped in the British sector. Five western sector police were kidnapped yesterday. Of nine abducted in two days, three have escaped.

At least 20 western sector police have been seized since the police department was split by Russian refusal to accept dismissal of Moscow-trained Paul Markgraf as police chief. The dismissal was ordered by the anti-Communist city government.

Try To Avoid Violence

American officials telephoned Russian headquarters, seeking to arrange discussions to head off further violence which might lead to a clash between occupation forces. They were told the two top Russian commanders in Berlin were away for the weekend. It was indicated renewed efforts for a conference will be made Monday.

The international crossroads of Potsdammer Platz, where the British, American and Soviet sectors meet, resembled an armed camp today.

Soviet soldiers, with tommyguns held at the ready, rode slowly along the square, just inside the Russian sector border. A few yards away military police stood by their vehicles.

Composite them, the British have erected a barbed wire barricade. They also have painted a broad white line to mark the border and have erected new boundary signs in English, Russian and German. Behind the line reinforced British military police units and British sector German police patrolled the street.

Objection Filed To Refuse Ballot For Progressives

Air Force Heads Investigate Crash Which Killed 17

Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 21—(P)—Air force officials headed by Major Gen. Clements McMullen, opened an investigation today into the B-29 crash here that killed 17 men.

The big superfortress crashed late Friday as it took off from the Rapid City air force base on a routine training flight to the Smoky Hill air force base at Salina, Kans. The plane's ten crewmen and seven men from the Salina base, aboard as passengers, died.

A second accident—this one minor—occurred this forenoon when a Nebraska national guardman training at the base crash-landed his O-51 single-engine fighter. The flyer, Lt. Robert F. Kretschmer, Omaha, was pinned in the wreckage an hour. Injuries included a broken leg, but his injuries were not considered serious. The accident happened 20 miles east of the base.

Petition Made By Three Illinois Former Officials

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—A formal objection to the Progressive Party's bid for a place on the ballot in the November general election in Illinois was filed today.

The objection was filed with the secretary of state by two former Democratic state officials and three other persons.

Two of the objectors are Albert M. Carter of Murphysboro, state finance director in 1940 under Gov. John Stiefel, and Don Forsyth of Springfield, head of the automobile industry under the late Democratic Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes.

Greek Army Triumphs Over Guerrillas

Athens, Aug. 21—(P)—Gen. Stelios Kitrilakis, deputy chief of staff, announced at Kozane tonight that the "Victory of Grammos" has been won by the Greek army.

He proclaimed the triumph two months after the army launched its summer offensive against the Communist guerrillas of Markos Vafiadis.

Returning to Kozane from the front, Kitrilakis told a reporter that most of the 5,000 guerrillas estimated last week to be still holding out in the Grammos mountains now "apparently have fled to Albania."

The closing phases of the Grammos campaign, finished in a whirlwind three-week drive, did not mark the end of the civil war. There still are two big problems to solve.

One is a method of sealing the Albanian and Yugoslav borders. Second is the planning of campaigns elsewhere in Greece to clean up scattered guerrilla bands.

Delegates Of Many Churches Gather In Amsterdam

Amsterdam, Aug. 21—(P)—The first international assembly of the World Council of Churches will meet here tomorrow as a "visible, tangible and practical demonstration to the world that the church can hold itself together."

Representatives of 150 Protestant and Orthodox churches from 42 nations will gather in Amsterdam's Nieuwekerk (New Church) as church bells throughout The Netherlands ring for 15 minutes to mark the historic occasion.

Dr. Henry S. Leiper of New York, general secretary of the council, said the assembly's outstanding importance is "as an expression of the sense of world community which we need unless the world is to become chaos leading finally, and necessarily to self-destruction."

Dr. Leiper said to assembly, representing eight out of 10 Christians belonging to Protestant or Orthodox churches is an attempt to bring into one common team as many of the elements which develop the world community as possible.

Two important aspects of the group's work, he said, will be an expression of the common views of Christians on the world crisis and the making of plans for using the world council as an instrument for effective common work.

Among the speakers at tomorrow's opening service will be the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, and Dr. John R. Mott of the United States, a pioneer in international Y.M.C.A. activities.

To Hold Another Meet In Attempt To Settle Strike

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(P)—A new conference aimed at settlement of the strike curtailing telephone service in many southern Illinois cities was arranged today for next Monday at Springfield.

Officials of both the Illinois Commercial Telephone company and the striking AFL Electrical Workers union said they had agreed to meet here with Steve Hutchins, a state labor department conciliator.

The walkout of 400 plant workers, now in its sixth day, put more than 25 of the company's 181 exchanges on an emergency basis when operators refused to cross picket lines. Only one exchange in the state's northern half—at Monmouth—was affected.

Monday's meeting was arranged a few hours after mayors of several cities urged an early end to the strike.

Following a conference last night at West Frankfort, the mayors sent telegrams to company, union and three state officials, including Governor Green. They asked assistance in obtaining restoration of normal service.

WEATHER

The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported the following: high, 94; low, 65; and at 1 p.m., 84.

Forecast for Illinois — Generally fair Sunday. Cooler extreme north-east.

Prairie Fire Rages In Dakota; Appeal To Army

Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 21—(P)—A prairie fire was reported out of control late today 50 miles southeast of here in uninhabited territory.

Capt. Thomas Siegler, Rapid City air base public relations officer, said he had received a call asking that all available men be sent from the base to fight the blaze. Presumably the call came from a plane which was flying over the burning area.

The fire was reported burning in a gunnery range, used by the 132nd air units made up of planes from Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska. Siegler said. The range is in the north-west portion of the Pine Ridge Indian reservation, now evacuated.

A heavy growth of grass, recently dried by hot weather, was reported in the area.

Arrest Woman Who Has Posed As Man

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 21—(P)—Police today announced the arrest of a downtown hotel, of a 25-year-old woman who had posed for some years as a man under the name of Robert Stewart Nelson.

The woman was wanted by Oakland, Calif., police on charges of grand theft.

When arrested Nelson was wearing woman's clothing. Phoenix police said it is believed her real name is Shirley Cal Nelson and that she was formerly a resident of Minneapolis, Minn.

Sgt. Vic Soule of the Phoenix police department said she told him she would waive extradition to California.

The woman had been missing since Monday. For the past two years she had posed as a man and the 17-year-old girl to whom she was "married" did not know, until Oakland police told her Thursday, that her "husband" was really a woman.

The couple was married in Phoenix Oct. 6, 1946.

BENTLEY CASE HELPS EXPLAIN HOW 'IDEALISTS' ARE DUPED

Miss Elizabeth T. Bentley met the press on the radio the other night. Four sharp-minded reporters questioned her, and some of her answers gave listeners a brief look into the workings of an American Communist's mind. It was an interesting, if somewhat bewildering, glimpse.

This confessed courier for a Soviet spy ring graduated from college in the depression year of 1930. She spent a year in Fascist Italy. Her life up to this time had been rather sheltered, she told the reporters. Then suddenly she found herself facing the rather sordid facts of life in a time of economic turmoil. This, plus her experience in Italy, led her through some "front" organizations to membership in the party.

After living under fascism, this American-born-and-reared woman permitted Communists to persuade her that the Italian and American governments were equally bad and, in fact, much the same. Today, she said, she thinks the United States has the best form of government in the world. But for more than a decade she apparently persisted in a contrary notion.

Miss Bentley admitted that she stuck with communism because she was idealistic. She probably would not deny that she was also gullible. For years she clung to the idea that her work against her own government was done not so much to aid Russia as it was to promote the communication of the United States by aiding the (then) only Communist government in the world.

Miss Bentley must have been one of the more intelligent and trustworthy native members of the CP, for she seems to have had some responsible assignments. Yet she admitted that it was several years before she suspected that any of her party superiors' actions were motivated by base desires.

Even when she finally met and worked with Russian agents it was some time before she decided that they were, as she put it, "cheap politicians." She had considered it a good Communist's duty to sacrifice time and money to the cause. Her final disillusionment came, she said, when Soviet agents forced her to accept a bribe of $2,000 from them or be considered a traitor.

It was not possible in a half hour of diversified talk for Miss Bentley to explain whether she was as disillusioned with communism itself as with its agents. But, by inference, she did sketch an outline of the lack of reasoning that must have duped many gullible young Americans into joining and staying in this alien and enemy party.

That is not to say that Miss Bentley's case is a model one. There must be a great variety of social, economic and emotional causes which lead Americans to renounce their country and their heritage and to close their minds to the insistent call of reason.

But perhaps Miss Bentley's story explains why a relatively few American Communists and their larger clique of fellow travelers can offer such a real threat to national security. They must surely be doped by dogma and hypnotized into accepting unreality before they can choose to become Communists. In such a state they are already the willing, unquestioning tools of foreign agents.

Miss Charlene Lonergan Weds Frank Kaufmann

Vows Exchanged In Morning Rites Saturday

The marriage of Miss Charlene Lonergan and Frank M. Kaufmann was solemnized Saturday morning in a lovely wedding ceremony held at nine o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour.

The Rev. Father Raymond Franzen officiated at the double-ring rites, which took place at the main altar, decorated for the occasion with large baskets of white gladioli, flanked with potted palms and lighted tapers.

A program of organ selections was presented before the ceremony by Mrs. Alta Eisch, who also played the processional and recessional marches.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Warren Hudson. Mrs. George McGrath and Miss Janet Lee Withee of Peoria, cousin of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The bride's small sister, Beverly Jo Lonergan, served as flower girl.

Attended by Brothers Robert Kaufmann served his brother as best man. The groomsmen were John Kaufmann, brother of the bridegroom, and William Ward.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a period gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a bertha of Chantilly lace which lent an off-shoulder effect to the shadow-sleeved neckline of silk marquisette, long, tightly-fitted sleeves, tapering to points over the wrists, a peplum waist, and a flowing skirt made en train.

Her fingertip veil was of French illusion, bordered with Chantilly lace, and held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was of white gladioli, centered with gardenias.

The matron of honor wore a gown of orchid organza over taffeta. The gown was styled with a high rounded neckline, cap sleeves and long full skirt. She wore mits of a matching shade and a shoulder-length veil held in place with clusters of rosettes.

The gowns worn by the bridesmaids were identical in design, being of brocade marquisette over taffeta. Mrs. McGrath wore yellow and Miss Withee's gown was pink. Both wore opera-length gloves corresponding to the color of their gowns and shoulder-length veils.

A black dress, accented with pink accessories was worn by the bride's mother. The bridegroom's mother wore black with matching accessories. Each had a corsage of pink carnations.

100 Guests at Reception Immediately following the wedding, a reception honoring the young couple was held at the Dunlap hotel, where more than 100 guests were received.

Serving at the reception were Helen Suter, Marjorie Doolin, Rosemary Casey and Janice Mason. The couple then left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 829 South Main street.

As her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a dress of yellow linen, with which she wore brown accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lonergan, 830 Goltz avenue. She was graduated from Route High school in 1946 and has been employed at the Morgan County Service company.

Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaufmann, 227 Finley street, was graduated from Route High school in 1944 and attended the University of Iowa for the past two years. He served in the U. S. Navy for a year and a half.

Morgan Retail Trade Gains 18.9 Per Cent
The Bureau of Economic and Business Research at the University of Illinois has just completed estimates of retail trade in Illinois counties. This study, which includes figures through the first quarter in 1948, was made to furnish interested people with the latest data available.

Estimates of retail trade by counties are usually made for an entire year, which means that no figures for 1948 will be published until sometime in 1949. The Bureau feels that businessmen and other interested persons require and are entitled to more up-to-date information than has been furnished in the past.

Retail trade in Morgan County totaled $7,288,149 during the first 3 months of 1948, 18.9 per cent greater than in the same period last year and 171.7 per cent more than in January-March, 1941. However, since a substantial part of the gain in dollar volume was the result of price increases, the true change in sales—adjusted for the rise in prices—was plus 9.4 per cent from the 1947 period and plus 46.5 per cent from the first quarter in 1941. Total 1947 sales were $29,619,493, representing a change of plus 28.3 per cent from those in 1946 and plus 121.5 per cent from the 1941 total. The changes, after adjusting for the price level, were plus 10.4 per cent and plus 32.8 per cent, respectively.

16.1 Gain In State Total trade in Illinois was $2,017,539,496 in the first 3 months of 1948, representing a gain of 16.1 per cent from the first quarter in 1947 and 145.1 per cent greater than in the January-March, 1941, period. Adjusted increases were 6.8 per cent from 1947 and 32.2 per cent from 1941. Sales advanced 19.7 per cent between 1946 and 1947 to $7,888,544,550, 94.7 per cent more than in 1941. Between 1946 and 1947, the adjusted gain was just 3.0 per cent, and an increase of 16.7 per cent was shown between 1941 and 1947.

Trade for the first 2 months in 1948 for the 101 downstate counties combined showed a 19.6 per cent increase in dollars from those for the same period in 1947, while the adjusted gain was 10.0 per cent. Between the first quarters of 1941 and 1948, dollar sales rose 162.3 per cent, and physical volume was up 41.5 per cent. Total dollar volume in 1947 was 23.1 per cent greater than in 1946 and was up 105.8 per cent from the 1941 total. These indicated advances of 5.8 per cent and 23.4 per cent, respectively, on an adjusted basis.

Dollar volume in Cook County, which includes business in the city of Chicago, rose 13.2 per cent between the first quarters of 1947 and 1948 and was up 137.0 per cent between January-March, 1941, and January-March, 1948. On an adjusted basis, the gains were 4.1 per cent and 27.8 per cent, respectively. Total sales in 1947 were 17.2 per cent greater than in 1946 and 91.6 per cent more than in 1941, which indicated physical increases of just 0.9 per cent from 1946 and 14.9 per cent from 1941.

Second Case Of Polio Reported In This County
The second case of polio in Morgan county this summer was reported Saturday.

The child suffering from the ailment is Johnny Gutmann, Jr., 13 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gutmann of Murrayville. He was brought to Our Saviour's hospital Friday, and was transferred Saturday to St. John's hospital at Springfield where a number of polio victims are under treatment.

"Keep children at home and out of crowds," was the advice issued Saturday by Dr. F. E. McCord, Morgan county health officer. He said that is the most effective precaution known in guarding against the spread of polio.

London, Aug. 21. —(P)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin conferred with French Ambassador Rene Mas-sigli today, presumably about the Moscow negotiations between Russia and the western powers.

Miss Charlene Lonergan Weds Frank Kaufmann

Vows Exchanged In Morning Rites Saturday

The marriage of Miss Charlene Lonergan and Frank M. Kaufmann was solemnized Saturday morning in a lovely wedding ceremony held at nine o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour.

The Rev. Father Raymond Franzen officiated at the double-ring rites, which took place at the main altar, decorated for the occasion with large baskets of white gladioli, flanked with potted palms and lighted tapers.

A program of organ selections was presented before the ceremony by Mrs. Alta Eisch, who also played the processional and recessional marches.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Warren Hudson. Mrs. George McGrath and Miss Janet Lee Withee of Peoria, cousin of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The bride's small sister, Beverly Jo Lonergan, served as flower girl.

Attended by Brothers Robert Kaufmann served his brother as best man. The groomsmen were John Kaufmann, brother of the bridegroom, and William Ward.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a period gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a bertha of Chantilly lace which lent an off-shoulder effect to the shadow-sleeved neckline of silk marquisette, long, tightly-fitted sleeves, tapering to points over the wrists, a peplum waist, and a flowing skirt made en train.

Her fingertip veil was of French illusion, bordered with Chantilly lace, and held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was of white gladioli, centered with gardenias.

The matron of honor wore a gown of orchid organza over taffeta. The gown was styled with a high rounded neckline, cap sleeves and long full skirt. She wore mits of a matching shade and a shoulder-length veil held in place with clusters of rosettes.

The gowns worn by the bridesmaids were identical in design, being of brocade marquisette over taffeta. Mrs. McGrath wore yellow and Miss Withee's gown was pink. Both wore opera-length gloves corresponding to the color of their gowns and shoulder-length veils.

A black dress, accented with pink accessories was worn by the bride's mother. The bridegroom's mother wore black with matching accessories. Each had a corsage of pink carnations.

100 Guests at Reception Immediately following the wedding, a reception honoring the young couple was held at the Dunlap hotel, where more than 100 guests were received.

Serving at the reception were Helen Suter, Marjorie Doolin, Rosemary Casey and Janice Mason. The couple then left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 829 South Main street.

As her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a dress of yellow linen, with which she wore brown accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lonergan, 830 Goltz avenue. She was graduated from Route High school in 1946 and has been employed at the Morgan County Service company.

Not A Wheel On The Highway

A truckload of limestone was spread where it would never do any good when several vehicles both large and small came into contact on U. S. Highway 36 at Riggston. Shown here is an International truck owned by Ernest Wilson of Jacksonville, which was driven by John Wilson. Limestone was strewn over the concrete pavement when the truck "jack-knifed" and flopped over on its side. Drivers of all three cars and the truck escaped serious injury. The multiple crackup is said to have occurred when one of the cars attempted to turn from the highway to the Riggston post office.

Lie Detectors Work Well, But They Can Be Lied To

By Arthur Edson (For Hal Boyle)
Washington—(P)—How would you like to submit to a lie detector? I've been asking that question around the office ever since the House un-American activities committee brought to whole thing up.

The committeemen, you will recall, suggested that Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers, who had told conflicting stories, might like to tell them over again. And this time a polygraph, or lie detecting machine, would be eavesdropping.

There probably is as large a supply of truth stacked around a newspaper office as anywhere else. Yet the usual reply has been, "No, thanks, I don't believe I'd care for any."

The little lady who shares the office phone with me even said: "Good heavens, I've always considered that an infernal machine. You know, first they strap you in that — and then in the electric chair."

In an effort to find out the truth about the truth-finder I borrowed a brief case and a studios air from a friend I know who once read a book.

An Interesting Target Disguised as a scholar, I had no trouble at all sneaking into the library of Congress.

Well, it turns out the lie detector is a pretty interesting gadget at that. The popular conception seems to be that it works like this: The witness tosses a bunch of statements into a hopper, and the machine sorts them and hands them back stamped, "true," "partly true" or "who do you think you're kidding?"

Actually, it's merely a device to measure how a person is breathing, his blood pressure and the like. When a person is lying, there is apt to be a pronounced change in his reactions. These are easy for the expert to spot.

But even the experts don't claim it never misses.

Writes Paul V. Trovillo in the "Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology": "Lie detectors are not infallible. Neither the operator nor the investigators should expect too much of the instrument."

Announce Plans For New Indiana State Park Area

Indianapolis, Aug. 21.—(P)—State and federal officials today announced plans for a new Indiana state park—the Kankakee river state park and forest in Newton county.

John H. Nigh, conservation department director, said the new park is planned to include eventually a total of 10,000 acres. Part of the area, which lies northwest of Morroco, will be used as a state park part as a state forest and part as a game preserve.

Nigh said the first move in setting up the park will be purchase of 3,767 acres from Mr. and Mrs. Everett Madison of near Muncie, Ill. The price of the land was reported to be $128,913, with the federal government paying nearly three-fourths under the Pittman-Robertson act.

The conservation department has held an option on the land for some time. Nigh said the sale probably will be completed in the next few days.

Lightning causes about 400 deaths and 1,000 injuries a year in the United States.

Miss America Contest Is Serious Business

By James P. Hackett

Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 21—(P)—There just isn't any fun for the sweet young thing who wants to become Miss America.

Lenora Slaughter, director of the Miss America pageant, says "it's a deadly serious business."

Beauties from 44 states, nine cities and Canada will compete September 7-11 for the Miss America title and $25,000 worth of scholarships.

Many of the girls will come here with local scholarships already won. Junior Chambers of Commerce, sponsoring state contests, have added scholarships ranging from $500 to $3,000 as awards to winners.

Hard Work Begins

There certainly is a thrill to the local competition, but once a girl has been selected to appear in the Fall beauty classic as a representative of a state or city, hard work begins.

The candidate must learn how to walk all over again. She may have to take a two-week to a month-long course at a modelling school. She has to find out how to do her hair, how to apply makeup to her face and how to overcome stage fright.

Over the years, most Miss America contestants have been accompanied to Atlantic City by their mothers. In recent years, college beauties have been competing in increasing numbers.

Miss Slaughter has 55 local ladies as chaperones, plus 10 substitutes. Each is assigned to one of the contestants and one to the reigning Miss America. While the girls are in Atlantic City, they are constantly in the company of a chaperone. There cannot be a breath of scandal about any Miss America entrant while she is in the resort.

Rules of Pageant
On her first night in Atlantic City, a beauty must attend a general meeting and hear the rules of the pageant. These include:

1. She cannot be seen in a cocktail lounge.
2. She must not appear in public without her chaperone.
3. She must not permit a man, even her father, in her hotel room.
4. She must not permit an interview by the press, talent scouts, or other persons without permission and without her chaperone.
5. She must not use padding in her bathing suit.

That No. 5 has caused a few minor fuses. There was a backstage investigation of six girls last year when someone started a rumor that they were perhaps, maybe, well, a little extra full-looking.

While they are in Atlantic City, the girls never see a hair dresser or a makeup artist. Miss Slaughter says the girls do all the "fixin'" themselves, helped perhaps by mother or a chaperone.

The current Miss America, Barbara Jo Walker of Memphis, Tenn., has never been in a beauty parlor-room in her life," says Miss Slaughter.

Elmer Middendorf served as auctioneer. Spectators said he had to do some pretty fast talking, because all of the purchases were wrapped beyond recognition.
Some of the packages brought as little as $5. Others brought as high as $12.
H. L. Caldwell, president of the club, presided at the picnic meeting.
The campaign for money to meet the balance of the community's $700,000 part of the $2,100,000 has not formally begun.
The state and federal governments each granted $700,000 to the Passavant hospital board of trustees last week. The new hospital will be constructed as soon as the community raises its part.

Law On Which FCC Based Fight On 'Give-Aways' Void
Washington, Aug. 21.—(P)—A congressional committee said today that the law on which the federal communications commission is basing its crackdown on "give-away" radio programs has been repealed. It asked if the FCC is still going ahead, and how.
The FCC recently announced proposed new regulations to curb the get-rich-quick programs. Date of the order has not been stated.
Frank T. Bow, lawyer for a special house committee investigating the FCC, made public a letter to FCC Chairman Wayne Coy asking if the agency "still plans to proceed... and under what authority." Bow said the rules would apply to Section 316 of the communications act prohibiting certain programs but that the section was repealed last June by a Recodification Act.
Coy said he had not yet seen the letter and declined comment meanwhile.
"We are taking no position in the matter," Bow told a reporter.

Derby Champion Liked Race At Akron, Ohio

John W. English, Jacksonville's Soap Box Derby champion, has returned to Illinois full of enthusiasm. The Akron race, it seems, is about the pinnacle of glory.

The champ was defeated in his second race last Sunday. He was the only Illinois boy out of the six entered to win a round, and hence became state champion. Other Illinois boys entered were from Aurora, O., Iowa, Paris, Springfield, and Woodstock. English is also the first Jacksonville boy to get by the first route in the history of the Derby. He beat contestants from Danbury, Connecticut and Hastings, Nebraska.

As usual, the Jacksonville winner had remarkable time for the Derby course. When English won he raced the length of Derby Downs in 27.64 seconds. The grand champion, Donald F. Strub from Akron, Ohio, won the race with 27.09. English's time was only .54 seconds slower than the grand champion, not even a half a second.

Arrived Thursday Afternoon
The Jacksonville party arrived in Akron early Thursday afternoon. Cecil Ford, accompanying the champion, called into Derby headquarters, and shortly a siren-screaming motorcycle and car roared into the vicinity. English was picked up and rushed to the Mayflower hotel, as he described it "through stop signs, past intersections, just about as fast as we could go."

John was taken to the Mayflower hotel and signed in, and then rushed to Derby Town, a special camp designed especially for the champions. He said that he could do anything he wanted. "We were more-or-less our own bosses. We were treated like champions. Facilities were there for swimming, rifle shooting, horseback riding, woodcraft, archery, basketball and just about everything else a boy could think of."

English said he didn't see his car again until he made his test run Friday afternoon. "That was a pretty exciting run," John said. "Everybody said I did O.K. though."

Waited For Sunday
Sunday afternoon was the moment everybody had been waiting for. Better than 75,000 avid fans were packed into Derby Downs. English said he heard the crowd cheer the first round, but the second round he was too intent on winning to hear anything. "I think they cheered, though."

Cecil Ford said that when English finished several inches behind Edward Trefzger of Cleveland, Ohio, he swerved suddenly into the other lane and spun his wheels. "I wanted to give the crowd a thrill," the champ explained.

Champion's Banquet
After the race, all the boys were taken to the Goodyear banquet hall for the famed Champion's Banquet. There prizes were awarded. English winnings included a bicycle horn, a three cell flashlight, and a gold encased Bulova wrist watch. "It was a pretty swell banquet," the champ confessed.

English said that on the whole, the cars built in Jacksonville came far favorably with those he saw in Akron. "Persons seeing pictures of the Akron races think that all the cars are mechanical wonders," English said, "but the truth is that the photographs only take pictures of those which look that way. Some of the cars out there aren't so hot."

"Of course, all of them have won a city race, and that makes a difference."

Moved to Oklahoma
John English won't be going to Jacksonville high school this fall. His mother took him to Oklahoma City with her Friday. English who will be a sophomore next year, said he thought he would go out for swimming, and perhaps basketball. "I'm not big enough for football," he modestly explained. He weighs 89 pounds.

"Since I won the race, all the kids here want tips on how they should build their racers. I sure hope I can be here for the race next year. It should be something to watch," he concluded.

Drug To Treat Hay Fever "Effective"

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(AP)—A new drug has been more than 90 per cent effective in treating 142 cases of hay fever and other allergic conditions, an Illinois physician reported today.

The best showing was obtained against hay fever with "good results" reported in 66 of the 68 hay fever patients treated.

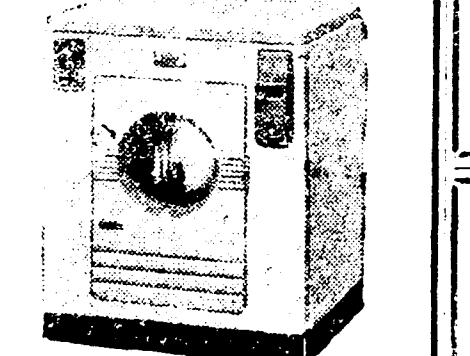

The drug is theophorin, one of the antihistamine group. Dr. John Peters of suburban Oak Park reported on its use in an article in the Illinois Medical Journal, official publication of the Illinois State Medical society.

$18,000 Damage In Mason City Fire

Mason City, Ill., Aug. 21.—(AP)—A blaze at the Brooks Motor company garage here injured one fireman and caused an estimated $18,000 damage yesterday. The fireman, Doc Rogers, suffered a head injury when struck by a falling line of hose.

The garage owner, Harold Brooks, said the fuel tank of a truck on which two repairmen were working caught fire and the blaze spread through the garage. The truck and two automobiles were destroyed.

Parker, Schroeder Win Doubles In Tennis Tourney

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21.—(P)—Playing steady, workmanlike tennis, Frank Parker of Los Angeles, Calif., and Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., won the Casino doubles championship today and virtually assured themselves of Davis cup berth.

The top-seeded pair defeated Irving Dorfman, of New York, and Tom Brown of San Francisco, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, 6-3, without extending themselves in the 29th annual Newport Casino Invitation Grass Courts tournament.

Bracketed for the singles finals, meanwhile, as the result of today's semi-final round, were Bill Talbert, of New York, and Harry Lukas of San Francisco. They will meet tomorrow.

Talbert worked himself over a steep bump in turning back the threatening Philadelphia, Victor Seixas, 4-6, 6-6, 7-5, 6-0. Lukas' victory came at the expense of the tournament's second-seeded Gardner Mulloy of Miami, and provided the class grass courts event with an upset second only to that experienced by Schroeder's defeat. The unseeded Lukas registered an 8-6, 6-10, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2 win.

Youthful Killer Repents On Way To Electric Chair

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 21.—(P)—An 18-year-old boy from Youngstown died in the electric chair at Ohio penitentiary last night with the reluctant sob of "I'm sorry, my God, Oh Father, have mercy" on his lips.

Donald Frohner, who admitted killing 32-year-old William C. Speth, in Ashtabula, Ohio, machinery salesman, in a fruitless kidnap plot against a schoolmate, was pronounced dead at 8:09 p. m.

Historically young Frohner sobbed, "God, have mercy, God, have mercy," he pleaded. "I'm sorry, my God, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

High voltage electricity stopped his muffled voice.

On the last day of his life Frohner expressed his sorrow over killing Speth. It was Frohner who black-jacked and shot Speth to death from the rear seat of the man's automobile.

Frohner and Arthur Chairman, 17, planned to kidnap Richard Masters of Youngstown, a schoolmate, and hold him for $5,000 ransom. They had hitchhiked a ride with Speth.

The two youths were captured a few hours afterwards.

Lair and Stewart formed the winning battery Saturday afternoon. The Jacksonville chucker allowed only five hits and walked but three. Klinge, losing pitcher, gave up 14 hits and walked three. Each team had three errors.

Mystery Bomb Damages Home

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(P)—A home-made bomb shattered the front door of the north side home of Benjamin Leventhal, trucking contractor, last night.

No one was injured, but windows across the street were blown out.

Leventhal, 44, president of the Roosevelt Garage Co., was unable to account for the bombing. He and his wife were attending the All-Star football game when the explosion occurred.

A maid, Beulah Driver, told Police Lt. Earle Miller that she heard a car draw up in front of the house and that a few minutes later the bomb exploded. The Leventhals' three children were sleeping in the house but were unhurt.

Indian Fire

GRAINS UNSETTLED; SOYBEANS, LARD HIT SEASONAL LOWS

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(P)—Another break in cash grain, making the third day of sharply declining prices, unsettled all grains on the board of trade today. Soybeans and lard also weakened, all contracts of the latter commodity sinking to new seasonal lows.

Several brisk selling waves swept over the market. During the session new seasonal lows were made by May and July wheat, all corn, September oats and November soybeans. Weakest contracts on the board were July wheat, down around 6 cents at one time, and September corn, off about 3 cents.

In the cash market, No. 1 yellow corn sold at $1.81 to $1.82 a bushel. This was off of around 6 cents from yesterday and compared with $2.05 to $2.07 for the same grade on Wednesday. Purchases of corn on a 10-day basis totaled 65,000 bushels. There were no shipping sales.

Oats held up somewhat better than other grains, although slightly lower most of the day. Holland overnight purchased 10,000 tons of oats to be applied against its September allocation.

Wheat closed 14-16 lower, September $2.19 1-4, corn was 18-21 lower, September $1.57 1-4, oats were 4-8 lower, September $1.18 1-4, and soybeans were 31-51 lower, November $2.49.

Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in carlots here today: wheat 25, corn 116, oats 24, rye 7, barley 28 and soybeans 2.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(P)—Hogs, cattle and sheep were quoted nominally steady in the usual dull Saturday livestock trade today. Hog quotations ranged from $24.75 to $31.00. New record high prices were scored in both the hog and cattle markets this week. A few hogs topped at $31.65 on Thursday, although prices fell sharply from that level late in the week. A load of high choice steers brought a $41.35 peak.

Hogs ended the week 50 cents to $1.00 higher. Sows again composed more than half the week's run. Good grade steers ended strong to 50 cents higher, but grass steers closed weak to 50 cents lower. Stockers and feeders found a dependable market all week at steady prices. Spring lambs lost 50 cents to $1.00 for the week. Top was $28.00.

Although the Negro population of the United States has increased sharply through the years, the proportion of Negroes to white people has declined sharply since 1790.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

IT was not a lovely house, at Sabrina's first sight of it, standing gaunt and gray against a barren hillside in the chill early twilight of that March day. Nothing much had been done about the garden, though a few bulbs seemed to be coming up. It was hardly late enough for lights, and the many casement windows watched them blankly as they came round the curve of the drive. The housekeeper opened the door to them, and remarked that the fires never drew right in that wind. They switched on the electric light and walked about in a somewhat smoky atmosphere with their coats still on, looking hopefully into the strange rooms which enigmatically awaited their scrutiny: comfortably furnished rooms, clothed in chintz and good velvet, well lighted and uncluttered with the cast-off belongings of the family. Bella sniffed and scurried in the corners, and Aunt Effie said it really wasn't bad, and Sabrina—Sabrina shook and shivered like a little racehorse at the post as she crossed the threshold.

A spacious hall, with a wide oak staircase rising from its middle. Paneled walls, rather gloomy. Two big drawing-rooms, one opening into the garden, and a library which was already Father's own exclusive sacred den. A long dining-room opening off the back of the hall, with family portraits and a cold white marble mantelpiece. The kitchens and so forth lay beyond it. Upstairs, a central passage with rooms off either side. Nine bedrooms. Aunt Effie, popping open doors, muttering busily to herself, efficiently questioning the housekeeper, while Bella pattered at her heels, gave Sabrina her choice of two. The first one had blue-and-white flowered wallpaper and chintz; a window seat with a long view down the garden in blue twilight, a four-poster bed with chintz hangings—Sabrina drew a long sigh and pulled off her hat and tossed it into the armchair beside the dressing-table.

"This is it," she said simply, and for some childish reason she could not understand there was a lump in her throat and she wanted to cry.

"Well, just as you like, dear—Jennie will bring up your bag in a few minutes. Jennie is the housemaid," said Aunt Effie, and bustled away.

Sabrina walked over and pulled the chain of the bedside lamp, which cast an amber glow across the plump bolster. A book lay on the little table beneath it—just a novel, not very new, but suitable for reading in bed, as though the room had been expecting her. There were more books in built-in shelves beyond the bed. There was a writing-table, stocked with notepaper and pens and ink. Blue glass toilet things. . . . Her room. Waiting for her. With a coal fire grate, and everything laid ready for the match. Her own coal fire in her own room. . . . Aunt Effie put her head in at the open door.

"It was not until several weeks I had passed that Sabrina began not to be able to stop thinking about the room all day long.

She made a pretext for hunting up Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, and then lingered in the passage outside the kitchen.

"By the way," said Sabrina, elaborately casual, "have you got a key to that room—the one that's locked?"

"I have," said Mrs. Pilton. "Could I see it some time—the room, I mean?"

"There's nothing much to see," said Mrs. Pilton. "He's got his books there, mostly—and the sort of odds and ends a man collects."

"Books?" Sabrina's interest quickened.

"He's a great one to read," admitted Mrs. Pilton.

"So am I," Sabrina informed her eagerly. "I'd like to see his books some time."

"You and I will use the bathroom at the end of the passage," she said. "Opposite the upper stairs. Father can have the one next door to the big bedroom, all to himself. That will save trouble," she added darkly. "I'll be just across from you in the green room. Come, Bella, we'll find a place for your basket now." She vanished again.

It was when she went along the passage to look up the bathroom that Sabrina first noticed the other flight of stairs with that locked door at the top, and was caught peering. The house, in its spaciousness and dignity and the simple comfort of its furnishings, what Aunt Effie called "good value—very perfect in Sabrina's eyes. The exaltation of arrival was subsiding gently into a sense of deep satisfaction, and a healthy fatigue. But the riddle of the locked room was the finishing touch. And the room was actually mentioned in the lease as not being available for use by any possible tenants.

"By the way," said Sabrina, elaborately casual, "have you got a key to that room—the one that's locked?"

"I have," said Mrs. Pilton. "Could I see it some time—the room, I mean?"

"There's nothing much to see," said Mrs. Pilton. "He's got his books there, mostly—and the sort of odds and ends a man collects."

Alumni Reunion Will Be Held At School For Deaf Aug. 26-29

Preparations have been completed for the alumni reunion which is to be held at the Illinois School for the Deaf Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, August 26 to 29 inclusive. Over 500 graduates and former students are expected to attend.

The meeting will be the seventeenth of the I.S.D. Alumni association, the first having been held in September 1877 when the association was formally organized. Frank Read, Sr., '62, of Jacksonville was elected president.

In an address to the alumni during this occasion, Dr. Philip G. Gillett, then superintendent of the local institution, said in part: "The little children whom it seems but a few years ago I dandled on my knee, I now see with the evidences of responsibility clearly depicted on your countenances. Since I gave you a hearty God-speed in the arena of active life, and sent you forth to battle with the rugged world, you have, many of you, become the heads of happy families, and now dandle your own offspring on your knees."

To Welcome Alumni
Old associations and remembrances will again be revived Thursday evening when Superintendent and Mrs. Dan T. Cloud and Assistant Superintendent and Mrs. Thomas K. Kline welcome the alumni at a reception in the school gymnasium.

The opening business session of the alumni association will be held in Bowen auditorium Friday morning with President John M. Tubergen, '35, of Forest Park presiding. Invocation will be delivered by Rev. William J. Boston, who for many years has been a housefather at the local school. "Auld Lang Syne" will be given in the sign language by Mrs. Frieda B. Meagher, '97, of Chicago. Reports of officers and committees will follow. Mr. Tubergen will give the president's address at the afternoon session.

Three Dramatic Club Plays
Friday evening three one-act plays will be presented by the Chicago Silent Dramatic Club, most of the participants being I. S. D. alumni. The Saturday morning business session will open with "America" by Mrs. Elizabeth A. Malworm of Chicago. Superintendent Cloud will address the group during the afternoon session after which there will be an election of officers for 1948-1951. Eleanor Armato, '48, of Rockford will close the session with "God Bless America."

Cassius Peust, director of the State Department of Public Welfare will be the principal speaker at the banquet to be held Saturday evening. A dance in the gymnasium will follow the banquet with music being furnished by Von Young and his orchestra.

Religious Services Sunday
Religious services in charge of the Rev. N. P. Uhlig of this city will be given in the auditorium Sunday morning.

Sunday there will be an all-day picnic in charge of Jacksonville Division 88 of the National Fraternal Society of Deaf, the main feature of the day being a soft ball contest between picked teams from Northern and Southern Illinois.

The local committee in charge of arrangements for the reunion consists of William Johnson, '23, chairman; Ralph Brasel, Claude Campbell, Eugene Clements, Elgin Cress, Edna Dirks, Daisy Fawcett, Marie Hofstetter, Louise Link, Charles Long, Dwight Morton, David Mudgett, John Passavage, Fred Schone-man, and John Van Noy.

Mrs. F. M. Shults Has Narrow Escape From Ohio Flood

Mrs. F. M. Shults, 873 West State street, returned home Friday from a visit to points in Ohio and Indiana, experiencing a narrow escape when a flash flood hit Lancaster, Ohio, while she was a visitor there.

Mrs. Shults accompanied her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Hara, to their home in Lancaster five weeks ago. Five days after they arrived there, a flood struck the city inundating 1500 homes. The O'Hara residence was among those hit by the high water and it was necessary to use boats to rescue the occupants. Mrs. Shults declared it was a miracle that no casualties resulted from the flood.

Dr. D. R. Blodgett, superintendent of city schools, has announced detailed plans for the opening of schools, which will give needed information to students and parents.

Junior or senior high school students who have not registered should visit the school offices as soon as possible and register. Offices of the junior and senior high schools are open every day except Saturday.

Pupils in the first six grades may be registered at the elementary schools any morning until school opens. Parents and pupils are invited to the schools to discuss any matters of interest with the principals.

In the first grade children who are six years of age by December 1 are eligible to start school. A birth certificate should be presented at the time children register. There will be no mid-year classes for beginners in January.

Freshmen Report First

Rented textbooks will be available to pupils on a limited basis. The rental plan was adopted by the Board of Education to reduce the expenses for the pupils and to make new materials more readily available. In the high school about one third of the books have been placed under the rental plan.

Rent Books By Semester

Rental fees will be collected at the beginning of each semester. The semester rental fee for the first grade will be $1.68, for the second grade $2.00, for the third grade $2.40, for the fourth grade $2.80, for the fifth grade $3.20, for the sixth grade $3.60, for the seventh grade $4.00, and for the eighth grade $4.40.
